

Humiliatrix

A Humiliatrix is a dominant Woman skilled in the art of erotic humiliation. She uses humiliation as a form of psychological control rather than physical to train and condition Her submissives. Humiliation when performed with the skills and force of Goddess Lycia creates a sexual force in a man who requires this form of extraordinary control.

Many men have grown up in a life of illusion, thinking they have ascended to positions of power. It is up to Goddess Lycia to point out the errors of their ways and teach them to think correctly. In extreme cases the only way for these men to receive the training they so desperately need is for Goddess Lycia to require them to confess their inadequacies, and often times put on public display their inferior maleness.

i too have found myself confused until Goddess Lycia taught me to think correctly. At a time, i thought i was immune from Her Humiliatrix conditioning methods. She has used Her superior Humiliatrix skills to show me that in fact i was not immune.

She has done so through tease and denial. She will get me all worked up, which does not require much as She keeps me in a constant state of arousal anyway. Its when She starts pressing my buttons, allowing me to see Her on web cam, watching Her smile at me, Her beautiful eyes, and red hot sexy lips, blowing smoke at me. Soon i find myself in an unbearable need for release.

What does She do when She knows She has me like this? She giggles and laughs, doesn't She know the throbbing pain that i feel? i beg of Her for some relief, which only brings further humiliation and futher arousal. Its a seemingly never ending cycle as i beg louder and in more desperation.

i reach that point where i feel i can't take it any longer, and still She pushes my limits, all the way to the point She chooses to finally give me the permission i so desperately seek. i have been teased and denied many times by the superior Humiliatrix Goddess Lycia.
