

Cult of Lycia

Goddess Lycia has revealed Her surprise one day sooner than promised, a brand new web site, Cult of Lycia. i of course could help but want to go see the site as soon as i found out. Her new site is visually stunning and media rich, that's before even getting inside the inner sanctum. i could and do totally sit for hours looking at Goddess Lycia's pictures, Her new site is like a dream come true for me.

She is absolutely showing both Her Humiliatrix and HypnoDomme on Her new site. i think the site will give Her subbies a chance to receive more personal interaction with Her and She will be updating the content on a very regular basis. i can tell that She has already put an awesome amount of work into Her new site.

Inside the inner sanctum, right on the very first page are three of the most stunning pictures i've seen of Goddess Lycia. There is a gallery section with several albums of pictures of Her. Some are of tantalizing fetish scenes and some others are provocative, all are stellar images of Her. She has included a slide show feature and subbies can leave comments too.

There is a video section, with videos which are all fetish related. One of the videos is named "Oral Fixation", i REALLY liked that one. Then there is an erotica section, the cool part about that is you have the option of reading the story yourself or listening to Goddess Lycia read the story to you, i chose the latter because what could be better than listening to a beautiful Goddess and Humiliatrix read an erotic story? i like that part of the site A LOT.

Next comes a members forum area, where Her subbies will be able to interact with Her on a more personal level. One of the sections is for assignments for Her subbies to be carried out. It really is being a part of Her cult and inner circle.

Finally there is a Special section where i suspect Goddess Lycia will have some additional surprises from time to time. She has thought of everything and Her new site is the perfect place to worship Her. i know that She must have already put a lot of work into the site and i am grateful that She has done so. Thank You Goddess Lycia and congratulations on Your new extraordinary site.
